

Mississippi Council on Economic Education

Teaching Asia in a Changing World

Saturday, May 9, 2026

THREE TOPICS:

From Nothing to Nissan

Casey Shin, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Politics and Law, Rhodes College

Gandhi and Nonviolent Resistance

Lynn Zastoupil, Professor, Dept. of History, Rhodes College

U.S. Partners in Asia: Japan & South Korea

Stephen Ceccoli, Professor, Dept. of International Studies, Rhodes College

Workshop sponsored by the NCTA to engage grade 5 - 12 teachers on themes and strategies for bringing education about Asia in the classroom.

Educators Benefits:

- ▶ 0.5 hours of CEU credits FREE
- ▶ FREE Asian culture & history books
- ▶ Access to classroom-ready digital teaching resources
- ▶ $50 teacher participation stipend
- ▶ Box lunch provided

Saturday, May 9, 2026

9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Nissan North America Canton, MS

Register

Additional Details Provided Upon Registration

Email TNNCTA@rhodes.edu for Further Information